"You can judge a country by the way they treat their animals"

-Gandhi

Take a moment to ponder what this quote means. Take a moment to ponder on your ponderings. Now that you have pondered you can do. Now you can decide not to test on animals. Or you can forever ponder and never do. What is to life without doing something? Every man ponders but only smart ones do what they pondered on. Thank you

Always keep pondering!

Ps I 'd like you to email me back, it just reassures me that you actually read the letter.
